CODE OF CONDUCT

The Miami Springs Football Optimist Code of Conduct is in place to provide a safe, healthy and clean environment for children to participate and compete in without reservation or undo pressures. I understand and agree to the following:

- Participants will take part of these activities under their own will, without any pressure and adults will emphasize skill development and practices while discouraging any unsportsmanlike conduct.
- Parents or guardians shall inform coaches or team officials of any physical disability or ailment, chronic or temporary, which may affect the safety of the child or other.
- Participants, parents and guests shall understand that these activities are for the children and that promoting their physical, emotional and mental well-being should come ahead of any personal desire to win games.
- Participants and parents shall become knowledgeable of event rules and league policies and shall not engage in any kind of unsportsmanlike conduct with any official, coach, player or other parent such as booing, taunting, using profane language or gestures. Furthermore, parents and participants resolve conflicts without resorting to hostilities or violence. This includes treating everyone with respect regardless of race, creed, color, sex or ability. Any issues between parents and coaches or officials shall be discussed at an agreed upon time and date.

Program, Miami-Dade Extreme Youth Football League and the Fed Ex Orange Bowl League permission to take photo and video of my child during a sanctioned event or practice, and am aware that the same may appear on television or in print for the purpose of promotion or reporting events.

Parents and guests will provide an environment free from drugs, tobacco and alcohol and shall refrain from their use during official events.

- Parents and guests shall praise children for competing fairly and trying hard consequently making the child feel like a winner every time.

I understand that failure to abide by the above may terminate my child's participation for the season and forfeiture of fees.
